Information Sharing

- The College had our Fall Learning Days Kick-off on Tuesday, August 21. Dr. Goodnow hosted the annual President's Breakfast and delivered my State of the College Address. Dr. Goodnow thanked Trustee Middleton and Trustee Peatross for attending. Please let Kay know if you would like a copy of the DVD of my State of the College Address.
- On Sunday, September 23, the NAACP Saginaw Branch will host its 2018 Freedom Fund Gala at the Horizons Conference Center beginning at 4:30 PM. The keynote speaker is the Retired Honorable Judge Marilyn E. Atkins.
- As part of this year's Mind Trekkers Festival, Trustees are invited to the VIP Luncheon that will take place at Delta College on Friday, October 12, from 11:30 AM – 1:30 PM.
- Dr. Goodnow encouraged Trustees to take a look at this month's Fantastic Faculty which has been uploaded to BoardBook.
- As a note, Board folders have been updated to reflect our Fall 2018 numbers.
- The following information was included in Board folders:
  - Information on TowerPinkster – the architectural firm recommended for the Midland Center.
  - A copy of the Local Strategic Value Report.
  - A copy of the President's 2018-2019 goals.
  - A 2018 PBS booklet. As the cover indicates, PBS has been deemed one of America's most trusted institutions, for the 15th straight year. If you take a look at the charts on pages 2 and 3, you can see how highly PBS ranks in recent surveys. And, on pages 10 and 11, there's great statistics on our Children's programming. There's a lot of great information in this publication, so I hope you'll take the chance to read through it at home.

In terms of funding, the Senate passed the Fiscal Year (FY) 2019 combined Defense and Labor, Health and Human Services and Education (Labor-HHS-Education) appropriations bill by a vote of 85-7 in late August. The bill provides level funding for public broadcasting. That would impact the $737,023 in funding Delta College's WDCQ-TV would receive from the Corporation for Public Broadcasting.

There were no amendments made to the bill targeting public media funding for cuts, which is good news. Congress has continued to show strong bipartisan support for local stations and our services. The bill still needs to pass in the House and then be dealt with in Conference prior to the end of the fiscal year on September 30th.

- A copy of an article featuring Dr. Lisa Lawrason, Professor of Political Science, announcing her as the 2018 Daniel M. Asquino Civic Leadership Award Winner from the Democracy Commitment.
  - Board of Trustees Planning Calendar.
  - A copy of the Standards of Good Practice from the Association of Community College Trustees.
  - The latest issues of the Delta Collegiate.
- As you know, the College is working on the go-forward operating model for organizational sustainability.

Following the Administration's presentation in June, the Board requested that the Administration provide a monthly update on the work we are doing.

Dr. Goodnow asked Sarah DuFresne and Scott Lewless to provide a brief update on benefits as part of the updates this evening.

Sarah DuFresne and Scott Lewless provided a benefits update to the Board. The presentation included:

- An overview of the Benefits Committee including the representation of the committee.
- A summary of the 2017 Health Benefits costs to the institution.
- An overview of plan design changes that will be implemented, effective January 1, 2019 – as well as estimated budgetary savings.
- An overview of plan design changes that will be implemented in 2020 and 2021.

There was discussion regarding the benefits including questions about who would provide the HSA (Arcadia Benefits) and the way the changes would be communicated.

Sarah said that there will be several communications including open forums that will be focused on explaining the changes.
